

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 12 and 15 September 2018

Konstantin Shamray

Charissa Davies

Eugene Raghianti

Russian pianist Konstantin Shamray will be playing music by Ravel, Franck and Debussy at Elder Hall, 17 September, 8.00pm, as part of The Firm's series. Konstantin is just back from Russia where he gave a number of recitals. He talks about his thoughts on programming and the pianists who have inspired him.

Charissa Davies, Senior Exhibition Curator at Festival Theatre, talks about this year's Our Mob exhibition. It is open until 23 October in the Festival Theatre foyer.

Eugene Raghianti talks about Operativo, a concert featuring Italian music. The singers are Teresa La Rocca, Brenton Spiteri, Catriona Barr and Mario Bellanova. Michael Ierace is the pianist. Sunday 23 September, 2.30 Elder Hall. Coffee and wine, and beautiful music.

Next week: Keith Crellin

Kaleidoscope on Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00 am
Or listen to the podcast.

