

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 26 and 29 September 2018

Sally Hardy and Danii Zappia

Julian Thompson

Emma Byrne Sally Hardy Danii Zappia

Sally Hardy has written It's Not too Late (until you're dead), while Danii Zappia is producing, directing and starring in this play, together with Emily Byrne. It's a dark comedy dealing with sibling rivalry and regrets, along with much humour. See it at The Chapel, Star Theatre, 145 Donald Bradman Drive on 4,5,6 October. Booking through Trybooking or at the Star Theatre.

Julian Thompson is a member of the Australian Chamber Orchestra, who, together with cellist Timo-Veikko Valve will play in the Vivaldi Concerto for violin and two cellos. The guest director and violinist is the noted Russian violinist Ilya Gringolts. The program includes CPE Bach, Paganini and Bartok. You can hear the ACO at the Adelaide Town Hall 2 October 7.30pm

Kaleidoscope on Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00 am
Or listen to the podcast.

