

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 17 and 20 October 2018

Colin Varney *Karl Geiger *Geoffrey Collins *Edmund Pegge

Ever had a tune stuck in your head - an ear worm? And if a song could not only get into your head but influence your actions? Read Ear Worm by Colin Varney and see what happens. Published by Margaret River Press and now in all good bookshops. It's insightful, funny and full of musical in-jokes.

Karl Geiger is conducting the Graduate Singers in a concert, Serenity in St Peters Cathedral 20 October 7.30 pm. He discusses the music they will sing, and it really makes you want to go to hear it. Book through their website or at the door.

The ASO is bringing Mozart to Elder Hall on 17 October with Mozart (naturally) Brett Dean, and Hadyn. Geoffrey Collins is the flute soloist in a work by Brett Dean, The Siduri Dancers.

Shakespeare's words and songs will be brought to life by actor Edmund Pegge, and singers Alex Roose and Brooke Window with Mark Sandon playing the piano. At the Hartley Concert Room, University of Adelaide, Kintore Avenue, 4 November 3.00 pm. All to support 5mbs, as well as delighting the audience! Tickets at trybooking.com/YSLF, Eventfinda, and at 5mbs 83462324 $25 or $20 for 5mbs members

Next week: Lucinda Moon, Mel McCaig, Roslyn Lock and Graham Jesse

Kaleidoscope on Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00 am
Or listen to the podcast.

