

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 31 October and 3 November 2018

*Graham Jesse *Stuart Maunder * Helen Ayres * Robin Jenkin

Composer Graham Jesse speaks about his career as a musician and composer, at the release of his latest cd Chromatic Flight on the Move label. An interesting combination of classical, jazz and world music.

SA State Opera has launched the 2019 season, and the Artistic director Stuart Maunder talks about some of the highlights and some of the lesser known productions to be performed.

Helen Ayres reveals that Seraphim Trio have a magnificent weekend of music and food at the Art Gallery of SA during 10 and 11 November. They are joined by guest musicians. All details on their website.

Robyn Jenkin, a member of Cantabile Singers tells of a concert acknowledging the centenary of the 1918 Armistice with a concert featuring Rutter's Requiem on Saturday 10 November at 5 pm at Concordia College Chapel, Cnr Balmoral and Cheltenham St, Highgate Tickets $30. Concession $25 through Cantabile Singers website or Try Booking

Next week: Aldis Sils, Celia Craig, Alexander Rogers

** Food of Love 4 November Hartley Concert Room, Kintore Avenue 3.00pm Shakespeare supporting 5mbs

Kaleidoscope on Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00 am
Or listen to the podcast.

