

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 7 and 10 November 2018

*Aldis Sils

*Alexander Rogers

*Robert Nairn

The Adelaide Philharmonia Chorus is presenting Sounds of Latvia to celebrate 100 years of Latvian Independence. Aldis Sils is conducting the choir along with the Marryatville High School Symphony Orchestra and other musicians. Bethany Hill and Alex Roose are soloists. Elder Hall 16 November, 7.00pm. Tickets through trybooking.com/XSTN.

The Reverend Alexander Rogers is conducting a special Commemoration of the Centenary of the 1918 Armistice at his Uniting Church, Kent Town, Fullerton Road, on 11 November at 10.00pm. The choir, augmented with local singers, will present music especially chosen for this event.

Robert Nairn Bass player, is a specialist in the performance of Baroque music. In this capacity he is curating Beast and Battles Abound! The Adelaide Baroque and special guests Mark Reibl, counter tenor and Anthony Albrecht, baroque cello will perform music by Biber, Purcell and Handel. At Ukaria, November 24 at 4.00pm. Tickets are $50 and $40 concession

Next week: Leonard Elschenbroich (Musica Viva)

Kaleidoscope on Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00 am
Or listen to the podcast.

