The Australian Festival of Chamber Music
26 July - 4 August
Townsville, North Queensland

2019 Australian Festival of Chamber Music - Program out now

The 29th Australian Festival of Chamber Music (www.afcm.com.au) will take place in the glorious sunshine and winter warmth of Townsville, North Queensland.

For 10 days from 26 July, you can enjoy a variety of concerts performed by some of the world's leading chamber musicians.

Artistic Director Kathryn Stott has themed the 2019 Festival "ORIGINS" with her program calling on cultures from around the world and featuring music from the 13th century to the present day. There is a mini focus on trios including giants like the Rachmaninov, Shostakovich and Tchaikovsky Piano Trios alongside smaller gems by Sibelius, Koechlin and others.

A line-up of 40 musicians from around the world will travel to Townsville for exclusive performances, including five making their first ever appearances in Australia.

Favourite events such as the morning Concert Conversations and Orpheus Island Concert are back, as is the free concert in Queens Gardens and the After Party on Magnetic Island.

Enjoy the unique combination of fine music, friendly atmosphere and stunning winter weather in Townsville, North Queensland from 26 July to 4 August. A variety of ticket options are available including 5 and 10 concert passes and three-night holiday packages.
