

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 17 and 20 April 2019

*Anna Goldsworthy *Susannah Sweeney *Lesley Lewis

The Coriole Music Festival 2019 is directed by Anna Goldsworthy. This year she has chosen to feature the music of composers in their early years, including Mendelssohn, Bach and Korngold, as well as the works of Australian composers, Jakob Jankowski and Luke Styles. Musicians include Konstantin Shamray, Lucinda Collins, Helen Ayres and the Flinders Quartet. At Coriole Winery 4 and 5 May. Check their website for full details.

Susannah Sweeney is the Creative Producer of Dream BIG, a festival for young people. She talks about some of the events in this popular festival which takes place, at Festival Theatre and other venues, from 22 May to 1 June. Much to see and experience, including workshops and interactive events. Overseas artists and many local children's theatre groups. Check DreamBIG website.

Lesley Lewis is the musical director of The Little Music Room, Little Hampton which is presenting two concerts. The first, on Sunday April 28 at 2.30 pm Romantic Vienna, welcomes back Tim Nott (French Classical flute) and Geoffrey Morris (Viennese guitar) with works by composers residing in Vienna such as Giuliani and Schubert. The second concert on Saturday May 11 at 2.30 pm, Homage to Anna Magdalena focusses on the household music of J.S. Bach through the eyes and ears of his second wife, Anna Magdalena, and her celebrated Book of 1725.

Next week: Helen Stacey, Roz Locke and Barry Hill

On Wednesday at 6.00pm and Saturday at 11.00am. Or listen to the podcast.
