

GUESTS ON KALEIDOSCOPE: 29 MAY and 1 June 2019

*Shane Lestideau

*Simon Lord

*Brenton Whittle

Evergreen Ensemble was founded by Shane Lestideau to bring traditional Scottish music and Baroque music together with a truly pleasing result. Their next concert in Adelaide is 16 June at the North Adelaide Baptist Church 2-3pm and a workshop with visiting international musicians at 4pm. They have released two CDs as well. Check out their website for full details.

Simon Lord explains why he loves Beethoven and why he helped to organise the performance of all the Beethoven piano concerti with the ASO conducted by Nicholas Carter and the young Australian pianist Jayson Gilham. At Elder Hall June 5-15. You need to book now if you want to go as it is selling out quickly.

A new play Well Shut My Mouth by Brenton Whittle is being presented by the Adelaide Repertory Theatre at the Arts Theatre June 20-22 and 27-29 with a matinee. Directed by Sue Wylie, it is a Wake with a Difference. Brenton is well known as an actor, TV voice and writer.

Next week Pirates of Penzance and the Friends of the ASO

Kaleidoscope Wednesday at 7.00pm and Saturday at 11.00am. Or listen to the podcast.
