*Alex Sils

*Rachel Bruerville

*Alex Roose

*Marianna Grynchuk and Yundi Yuan

On Sunday 11 August 2.30pm the Adelaide Philharmonia Chorus, under the direction of ALDIS SILS will present Sacred Rhythms: Misa Criolla and Missa Luba, music of Africa and the Andes. These works are full of life, with a vibrant rhythm, as Aldis explains.

RACHEL BRUERVILLE is the Composer in Residence for Young Adelaide Voices, She has just returned from Sydney where this choir performed one of her compositions in the Sydney Opera House. Rachel has been shortlisted for the Art Music Awards APRSAMCOS Vocal Choral Section, along with three other composers including Andrew Ford.

The Songs of Travel by Ralph Vaughan Williams will be sung by ALEX ROOSE, together with Damien Mansfield at the piano, at the Kenttown Uniting Church on Wednesday 14 August at 2.00pm. Alex talks about the beauty and difficulties of these songs which are justly famous.

MARIANNA GRYNCHUK came to the studio with YUNDI YUAN to tell us about a concert which includes Shostakovich Piano Trio no 2 and the Australian premiere of a Piano Trio by Lucan Debarque. Other members of the concert are Lester Wong, violin and Jack Overall, cello. You can hear this concert, Encounters at St John's Church Halifax Street on 17 August at 2.00pm
