

KALEIDOSCOPE: 19 and 22 February 2020

*Adam Page *Nicola Roy *Henry Naylor *Jennifer Liston

Adam Page is performing at the Wheatsheaf Hotel - The Wheaty Tin Shed - in three separate shows. Adam Page 4 Saxophones and A Beat Machine 27-29 Feb 9.00pm
Adam Page - Solo 15-16 Feb 7.00pm
Adam Page-For Kids - and Their Adults 29 Feb 2.00pm Book through Fringetix.

Nicola Roy is a Scottish actress appearing in Tartuffe at Holden Street Theatres 11Feb -15 March. It's an adaption of the Moliere play, and very funny. One of the plays brought from Edinburgh. Book through the Fringe. Check times.

Henry Naylor returns to Holden Street Theatres with The Nights. He has written a play which deals with the ethics of modern journalism in the face of the horrors of war.

Irish/Australian poet, Jennifer Liston, brings the story of Grace O'Malley, the pirate queen who took on Queen Elizabeth I and won. She brings her to life through poetry, story and music. At Grande Room, Gilbert Street Hotel, 21-21, 28 Feb and 4 March. A Fringe event.

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm and repeated Saturday 11.00am

