

KALEIDOSCOPE: 11 and 14 March 2020

Gay Lynch *Lindsay Dunn *Matthew Fagan *Ali McGregor

Gay Lynch's novel Unsettled is set in the colonial South Australian frontier, near Mt Gambier, where the Lynch family, just arrived from Ireland, seek to make a new life in a new, disturbing land. Available on Amazon or in bookshops.

Lindsay Dunn is starring in the comedy Twentieth Century, set in a train going from Chicago to New York. A producer schemes to lure his leading lady away from films and back to the stage, to revive his fortunes. 19-28 March ,Arts Theatre Tickets at Trybooking, or through Therry Society's website.

Matthew Fagan, guitar player, together with pianist Nicolas Young is bringing Spanish music, tangos and much besides to Adelaide. Hear them at Scots Church North Terrace on 13 and 14 March 7.00pm or 15 March 3.00pm. Book at Fringetix

Cabaret artist Ali McGregor is presenting Jazzmatazz in the Dunstan Theatre 6 June as part of the Cabaret Festival. A great show for children and the adults can join in the fun. Book at Bass.

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm and repeated Saturday 11.00am

