What do musicians do when all the concerts are cancelled?

In Kaleidoscope this week I talk to Konstantin Shamray about the Elder Hall Concerts which are streamed on line through the Elder hall Concert Series website or Facebook. On 17 April at 1.00pm he will play Sonatas by Tchaikovsky, Scriabin and Medtner

Dean Newcombe, Principal Clarinet, Shirin Lim, Principal First Violin and Martin Butler Viola in the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra give insights into their musical experiences and how they are managing the temporary changes in their daily regime. Testing times for them, but also the chance to catch up on number of things, musical and otherwise. Watch out for online performances from members of the ASO planned in the near future.

Next week: Luke Altmann and Lachlan Bramble talking about a new CD Holy Fools

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm and repeated Saturday 11.00am
