

Kaleidoscope 8 and 11 July 2020

Robert Reason Martha Lott Bernadette Klavins

The David Roche Foundation is currently holding an exhibition of floral art entitled: Flowers:Passion.Pain.Nation. featuring artists from 1580 to current times. Museum Director , Robert Reason, talks about the tradition of floral art, some of the paintings and painters. The David Roche Foundation is in Melbourne Street, North Melbourne and the exhibition continues until early August.

Martha Lott outlines some of the shows in July, at Holden Street Theatres, featuring celebrities in 'An Evening With...'. Numbers are limited so check the Holden Street Theatres website and book to hear Mim Sarre, Vonda Last, or maybe a return show with Martha and Peter Goers.

Artist Bernadette Levins is in charge of the Teens Digital Takeover program and she talks about that, as well as the current and forthcoming exhibitions, now that the South Australian Art Gallery has reopened.

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am

