

Kaleidoscope 22 and 25 July 2020

Bridget Alfred

Brian Gillan

Alain Valodze

The Chamber Music Adelaide Young Artist Award is being announced on 28 August but there is still time for a young musician to apply. Entries close on 10 August, 5.00pm. Bridget Alfred gives all the details on eligibility and where to find the digital entry form.

Brian Gillan's book, Who can save the Dolphins? is based on his experiences taking school children on the Port River to see the dolphins, and seeing the danger dolphins currently experience. Suitable for younger readers, but with a message for all of us. In bookshops, or check Australian Authors website.

Alain Valodze is just one of the guitarists performing in the current Online Guitar Festival at Festival Theatre, The Backstage Sessions. He will be playing together with Mark Bevan. Other musicians include Django Rowe Quintet, Kelly Menhennett & Band and Slava Grigoryan. All details at the Adelaide Guitar Festival website.

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am
