

Kaleidoscope 12 and 15 August 2020

Natsuko Yoshimoto

Anthony Hunt

This week's Kaleidoscope is a repeat of an interview of two prominent music personalities. It was first played 20 March 2020

Natsuko Yoshimoto has been the Concert master of the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra for the last ten years. She has now left the ASO, and she talks about what being a concert master actually entails, and her approach to music.

Anthony Hunt completed his music studies in Adelaide and then moved to Sydney work with Opera Australia, where he was the Chorus Master for a number of years. He has returned to Adelaide to take up the position of Master of Music and Chorus master with SA State Opera, as well as being in charge of music at St Peters Cathedral.

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am
