

Kaleidoscope 2 and 5 September 2020

Mark Isaacs

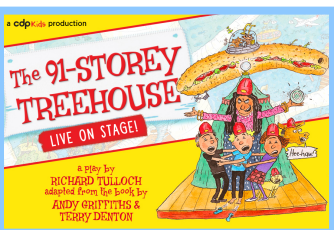

Teale Howie

Damien Mansfield

Noted musician and composer, Mark Isaacs, has released a cd of much loved piano music. The cd is music by Chopin, the significance of record shops but Isaacs' website to called Intimacies, and includes Debussy and Scriabin. He explains the title. The cd can be obtained in also downloaded. Go to Mark find all the details.

Teale Howie plays Terry in the stage version of The 91-Storey Treehouse which is playing at Festival Theatre, from 28 September to 2 October. Loads of fun theatre just when we need it. Book through Bass.

Pianist Damien Mansfield is joined by three other musicians to form the Nautilus Ensemble. They will be playing Mozart and Brahms piano quartets at North Adelaide Baptist Church Hall, Tynte Street on 13 September, 2.30 and again at Sunset Rock Uniting Church, Stirling on 27 September.

Book through try booking.com. Places are limited so book early!

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am