Kim Roberts is newly appointed as the General Manager of Music SA, a non-for-profit organisation committed to promoting, supporting and developing contemporary music in South Australia.

Natsuko Yoshimoto returns to Adelaide to play the Beethoven Violin Concerto with the ASO in Festival Theatre, 19 September. She says that while she has played it many times she always finds something new each time.

David Moran is the winner of the Chamber Music Adelaide Young Artists Award 2020. He is at present writing a Masters Thesis on the treatment of unstable sounds, (you may have to hear his explanation to understand that) as well as performing when the opportunity arises.
