

Kaleidoscope 14 and 117 October 2020

Gillian Dooley Kym Purling Gina Dutschke Anne Cawrse

Jane Austen's music book contains some little known French songs. Gillian Dooley talks about the French Connection, a concert where this music will be performed by Christine Morpheme, Mark Smith and Gillian. At the Barr Smith Library University of Adelaide 17 October 3-4pm $30 and $15. Book through Friends of the Library | University Library

Noted jazz pianist, Kym Purling, will be appearing at the newly renovated Regal Theatre 18 October 2.30, with two singers performing some jazz favourites.

The Kenttown Spring Series open with a concert featuring Gina Dutschke, organist and Emma Horwood, harpist and soprano. October 21 at 2.00pm $10 at the door. Kent Town Wesley Church.

The Australian String Quartet will play A Room of One's Own, composed by Anne Cawrse, and which the ASQ commissioned, together with music by Beethoven and Sollima. Elder Hall, 17 October 7.00pm $45 and $40. Book at asq.com.au

Next week: Our Mob and Our Words

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am

