

Kaleidoscope 10 and 13 February 2021

*Jonathon Glonek. *Bas Fam. *Martha Lott. *Paul McDermott

Violinist Jonathon Glonek is playing all of Bach’s unaccompanied violin works in two separate recitals at the David Roche Museum, 241 Melbourne Street North Adelaide at 7.30pm. On 24 February and 3 March. Book through Fringetix

Bas Fam is creative director of MATADOR at The Octagon, Gluttony 18 Feb. to 21 March. Check facebook.com/matadortheshow for full details of this spectacular fusion of dance, burlesque & circus.

Martha Lott brings details of some of the shows at Holden Street Theatres during the Fringe. In particular, THE BOY in which she stars and which she created through a process of research and workshopping. Check Holden Street Theatres website for all details of the shows and to book tickets. Also Fringetix.

Paul McDermott with Glenn Moorhouse is presenting Paul+1 from 2-13 March at the Rhino Room in Pirie Street. Book at Fringetix.

Check details at <https://www.facebook.com/paulmcdermottplusoneh>

Next week: More Fringe music and Shows
Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am

