

Kaleidoscope 2 and 5 June 2021

Damien Mansfield and Connor Fogarty, Angus Trumble, Shawn Hui

The Accompanists Guild, now known as the Collaborative Artists Society is holding a conference based on the piano and cello duo, with guests musicians Daniel de Borah and Umberto Clerici. They have chosen a composition by Connor Fogarty as one of their recital pieces. Conference is from 12-13 June. It will be held at the Baptist Church in Tynte Street North Adelaide and Elder Hall for the recital on the Sunday. Book through Trybooking.

Noted art historian Angus Trumble is giving a talk on the history of the tiara, under the auspices of the Australian Decorative and Fine Arts Society. On June 9, at two times and two venues. 10.30am Walkerville Civic Centre and 7.30pm Beaumont Bowling Club. For tickets ring 0407 070 722

As part of his music course Shawn Hui is organising a concert featuring advanced students at the Elder Conservatorium. The recital of music by Telemann, Pujol and Donhanyi is at the Barr Smith Library Reading Room, on 4 June 12 noon. Tickets $15 and proceeds are in aid of the Library Funds

Next week: Simon Lord

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am

