

Kaleidoscope 9 and 12 June 2021

Simon Lord

Cathy Cox

The Adelaide Symphony Orchestra has just released their program for the rest of 2021 and Simon Lord, Director of Artistic Planning speaks about some of the highlights. The Festival of Orchestra, (FOFA) to be held in November and December at the Adelaide Show Grounds is a new venture. There will be six concerts in all, classical and more popular music, lights, fireworks and lots to enjoy. The Symphony concerts continue in the meantime, with the next concert on 2 July. Check the ASO website for all details

Corinthian Singers have a marvellous program of music based on the winter solstice. It includes music by Gjello, Elgar and Sviridov. Andrew Georg provides keyboard accompaniment while Bass James Scott and Soprano Nicola Hardie-Campbell are soloists. Cathy Cox, long time member of the Corinthians gives more detail in her interview. At St John.s Church, Halifax Street, 3pm-4.15pm Sunday 4 July. Book through try booking. Bring a rug if it is cold and a cushion!

Next week: Kathy Selby

Kaleidoscope: Wednesday at 6.00pm: repeated Saturday 11.00am