

Kaleidoscope 23 and 26 June 2021

Emily Sun

Piers Lane

Violinist Emily Sun speaks about her early career, her attitude to music, eminent musicians who have inspired her, and the new CD Nocturnes which she has recorded together with Andrea Lam. Released by ABC Classics.

Piers Lane is a well known Australian pianist, based in London. For the moment he is in Australia, performing, but has also organised the 2021 Sydney International Piano Competition. It takes a different form this year, due to travel restrictions, but you can hear all of the 32 players performing on-line. The competition goes from 1-18 July and you can access all performances by buying tickets at thesydney.com.au and hear the music at any time that suits you.

Next week: Slava Grigoryan
